

COPY OF FORM 990

(TO BE USED, OR COPIED, FOR)

PUBLIC INSPECTION ONLY

NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an “unreasonable burden” on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester’s address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return – Form 990 - $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application - $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

Children and Families Commission

The Children and Families Commission supports 211OC to connect families to the resource they need. In FY19-20, the 211OC Information and Referral (I&R) Contact Center provided live help to over 93,000 contacts, and supported over 583,000 self-searches for resources via our comprehensive I&R database available for free at www.211oc.org. Of these total contacts, 35% were families with children under 17 years old. The 211OC contact center helped connect families to the following top needs: housing (35%), family community support (16%), utility support (11%) and individual, family and community support (10%). We maintained a trends report available for the public on the needs and trends of the community available for free access at www.211oc.org. It now has 6 years of data for comparison.

Expenses $ 168,225. including grants of $ 0. Revenue $ 0.

CalFresh

The community looks to 211OC as the front door for access to food resources because of the improvements made to the CalFresh Program. In FY19-20 the 211OC contact center successfully pre-screened 42,521 callers for CalFresh eligibility and reminds those with CalFresh to re-certify every 6 months. This has led to 1,539 applications submitted and from those 1,041 were approved in the last year, a 67.6% approval rate and a 650% increase in approvals since last year! COVID-19 had a devastating impact on food needs, which has been reflected in the increase in CalFresh approvals. Telephonic applications have been very useful with COVID-19 social distancing protocols and initially during the stay at home order. We have been able to help households apply from the safety of their home.

Name of the organization	People For Irvine Community Health DBA 2-1-1 Orange County	Employer identification number 33-0063532

In addition to target goals, 211OC continued involvement in the OC CalFresh Collaborative, working closely with other CBO's (Community Health Initiative OC, Dayle McIntosh Center for Disabilities, Orange County Office on Aging, Second Harvest OC) who also provide CalFresh Outreach has been a best practice to quickly and efficiently get community members connected to the CalFresh program. We continue to use 2-1-1 as one Virtual Front Door for clients who have food needs with the goals to: better connect clients to all immediate and long-term food needs including CalFresh, make the client experience easier by having one "front door" instead of 4 separate numbers to access food and have a common prescreening, one shared scheduling platform, and united messaging across all collaborating agencies.

Expenses $ 144,188. including grants of $ 0. Revenue $ 0.
